

Prescriptions

Starting Today, new arrangements for delivery of prescriptions will come into effect for the period of the Coronavirus emergency. Prescriptions will be sent over in a plastic box and will be delivered to you.

When you order a prescription, the surgery will advise you of this arrangement and will seek your permission to provide your prescription in this way. If you are not happy with this then they will make alternative arrangements with you.

23/3/2020